

Literary Notes.

THE COLUMBIA DESK CALENDAR,

which is issued annually by the POPE MANUFACTURING COMPANY, of Columbia Bicycle fame, is out for 1894, much improved in appearance. It contains, as usual, many appropriate and interesting contributions from people both bright and wise.

The twenty-seventh Volume of THE HOMILETIC REVIEW opens with a comprehensive article by Prof. William C. Wilkison, on "The Attitude of Christianity Toward Other Religions." Dr. Robert Balgarnie follows with an article dealing with some of the difficulties of prayer consequent upon the doctrine of the Trinity, as held by those who maintain the evangelical view. The Rev. William C. Schaeffer discusses the subject, "Emotion in Religion." Dr. William Bays Ward tells of the light that has been thrown by recent discoveries upon the life and character of Belshazzar. The Sermonic Section contains several timely sermons for the beginning of the new year. An interesting description of the social and religious customs of the Ainu, by Rev. A. H. McKinney, will be found under the head of Sociology and Comparative Religion. In the Miscellaneous Section are two helpful papers, one by Rev. E. P. McClintock on "Fellowship with Christ in His Sufferings an Essential Qualification for the Work of the Ministry," the other by B. B. Loomis, D. D., on "Ideal Worship." This number argues well for those that follow. THE HOMILETIC REVIEW is almost indispensable to those engaged in the work of the ministry.

Published monthly by Funk & Wagnalls Company, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York, at $3.00 a year.

A NEW YEAR'S MAGAZINE.

A sketch with portraits, of Mrs. Donelson Wilcox, who was born in the White House during the administration of Andrew Jackson, and whom he affectionately termed "The Sunshine of the White House," furnishes the biography. The second installment of Mr. William Dean Howells, "My Literary Passions" is full of interest as the first and as well worth reading. The editor discusses with much earnestness the vexed question of the education of our American girls. The four prize hymns, to which were awarded the prizes in "The Journal's Musical Series" of last year, are given in their entirety. Women everywhere will be delighted "Embroideries for a Dining-room," by Mrs. Barnes-Bruce; "Accessories to a Girls Room," by Anna T. Roberts, J. Macdonald Oxley writes of "Literary Recreation Clubs." Mothers will be interested in Miss Scovill's "Kindergarten at Home," and all housekeepers will be helped by Miss Parloa's "Household Hints." Altogether this New Year Journal, is an ideal number, and worth many times its price of ten cents. The Ladies' Home Journal, with a circulation of over 700,000, is published by The Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, for ten cents per number and one dollar per year.

A NOVEL ENTERPRISE.

The American Cooperative Library, recently organized in New York, undertakes to give to book readers, anywhere in the United States, better facilities than heretofore given them by the largest libraries in the leading cities, and at an almost trifling cost. You order any book you want, suitable for general circulation, and it is supplied immediately; you can order either direct, or through your local Bookseller, country Postmaster or others acting as local agents. One cent a day for a book, proportionately for other values, is the general basis of loans, three cents being the least charge made. Thus "Ben Hur" costs four cents for three days, "The Prince of India," five cents for four days for each volume. "Lorna Doone," three cents for six days. "Uncle Tom's Cabin," three cents for eight days, and so on.

You deposit the price of the book when you order it, keep it as long as you please, and on its return get any other book you want to borrow or want to buy. There are some special advantages to Book Clubs. Thus, at a cost of from $2.00 to $5.00 a year one can have access to the whole world of current and standard literature. Does not this bring the "Literary Millennium" pretty near every home? Circulars are sent free on request, or a 160-page Catalogue for 2 cents. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, Manager, 57 Rose St., New York.

"The Brethren Church,"

"Its history and a statement of its doctrines," a paper read by Bro. S. H. Basher before the World's Fair congress of the Brethren Church, has been revised and put into tract form. We know of nothing better for isolated members and evangelists in new fields to scatter. Believing in its utility we have printed a very large edition which is for sale at the nominal price of; one copy 5c, 3 copies, 10c; 10 copies, 25c; 25 copies, 50 cents; 100 copies $1.25; 200 copies, $2.60.

THE GOSPEL HAMMER
- AND - HIGHWAY GRADER.

By S. H. BASHOR.

IN CLOTH, postpaid, 20c.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea of how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place; Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.

WEST MECCA, OHIO, Oct. 27, 1893.—
S. E. Dubbel: Sir, Out of the six doz. Cough and Croup Cure, you sent me not one bottle was returned.

Mrs. E. M. SIMPSON.

ROSSVILLE, IND., August 22, 1893.—
S. E. Dubbel, Waynesboro, Pa. Dear

Sir: After we have used largely in our own family, and have sold hundreds of dollars worth of your medicines, and do know of their merits, justice seems to demand that we should recommend them to the public. As for the Cough and Croup Cure, it is the best remedy for coughs and colds we have ever used, and is an excellent antidote for that dreadful monster, La Grippe. The Carbolic Ointment is a noble remedy for old sores, cuts, burns, etc., but the Red Thyme Pain Cure has no equal, to our knowledge, for aches of all kinds; bruises, sprains, burns, pains in the stomach, back, head, etc. Where it has been introduced, people say that they cannot do without it. The demand for it is growing rapidly.

J. H. SWIHART.
